The PhilSys Mobile Registration Team (PMRT) was composed of one (1) Registration Center Supervisor, PhilSys Admin Clerk and considering that per chance unregistered individual joins the activity, PhilSys Birth Registration Assistance Project (PBRAP) Coordinator was also present.

Since the activity is a one-day registration, the PMRT successfully registered sixty-nine (69) school-goers into the Philippine Identification System (PhilSys) and one (1) issuance of the printable PhilID. And due to large number of unregistered students, the School Principal of the said school requested to plan for another two-day registration process by month of February.

PhilSys Admin Clerk Ronald Membreve issued the Printable PhilID

In connection of the office social responsibility to extend beyond its mandates, DavNor PSO Chief Statistical Specialist Pepito D. Amoyen initiated a gift-giving activity in the institution of Cabadiangan Integrated School. DavNor PSO employees and staff contributed and shared goods for the aforesaid school.

A heartfelt social responsibility that DavNor PSO employees extended in a straightforward manner were school supplies, cleaning and sanitizing materials. These were personally handed over and represented by PhilSys Focal Person, PhilSys Admin Clerk and PBRAP Coordinator.
